STANLOW, formerly extra-parochial, is now a township, on the river Mersey and the Manchester Ship Canal, 5 miles east from Sutton, $1\frac{1}{2}$ south-east from Ellesmere Port station on the Helsby and Hooton railway, 9 north from Chester and 11 east from Birkenhead, in the Wirral division of the county of Chester, higher division of the hundred of Wirral, Chester union and county court district and petty sessional division of Chester Castle. The Manchester Ship Canal passes completely through the parish, cutting off a portion of its northern area, which projects into the Mersey on the north side of the canal and is known as "Stanlow Point"; the waters of the river Gowy and the Thornton brook are now discharged into the Mersey by means of a siphon or aqueduct, constructed 18 feet beneath the canal bottom; and the water passes through iron tubes 12 feet in diameter, made in segments and bolted together, the whole resting upon and being surrounded by STANTHORNE is a township and small village, formerly in the parish of Davenham, but together with Wharton (Winsford) was constituted a separate parish March 10, 1860, and is about 1 mile west from Winsford station on the Crewe and Warrington section of the London and North Western railway, and 2 north-north-west from Middlewich, in the Northwich division of the county, hundred, union, county court district and petty sessional division of Northwich (Middlewich section). Stanthorne Hall, a spacious brick edifice, erected near to the site of the old hall, is the property of Col. C. H. France-Hayhurst, and the residence of Mrs. Dutton: the old hall, formerly surrounded by a moat, was taken down about 1810, and the moat, excepting a portion on the north-east of the present house, was filled up. In the 13th and 14th centuries, the manor was vested in a family of the name of Rahers; Little Stanthorne, as it is called, being at the same time held by the Duttons: subsequently the Whalleys were seized of the manor, and it was afterwards, by purchase, the property of Sir John Bryne bart. of Timogue, Ireland, from whom it descended to his grandson Sir John Fleming Leicester bart. 1st baron de Tabley, from whom it was purchased by Richard Jones esq. of Manchester. Col. C. H. France-Hayhurst of Bostock Hall, is lord of the manor and the principal landowner, but there are other small proprietors. The area is 1,101 acres of land, which are chiefly applied to pasturage, and 12 of water; the rateable value of the township is £2,696; the population in 1891 was 204.

2 feet of concrete: on the land side are sluice gates. At Stanlow Point was anciently a Cistercian abbey, founded in 1172 by John de Lace, constable of Chester, but owing to the floods caused by the river Mersey it was translated in 1296 to Whalley: the abbots had a seat in the parliament of the palatinate of Chester: few traces of the buildings now remain, and such as exist are discoverable only by excavation: the site and all buildings thereon were purchased in 1888 by the Manchester Ship Canal Co. who are lords of the manor. The area is 214 acres of land, 3 of water, 99 of tidal water and 347 of foreshore; rateable value, £306; the resident population in 1891 was 102.

By Local Government Board Order No. 22,405, a part of Stanlow township was in 1888 transferred to Great Stanney.

STOCKPORT AND HEATON NORRIS.

STOCKPORT, a municipal and parliamentary and county borough, a market and union town in Cheshire and Lancashire, is distant from London 182 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles, Manchester 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ south-east, Birmingham 77 $\frac{1}{2}$, Bolton 16 $\frac{1}{2}$, Blackpool 57 $\frac{1}{2}$, Burnley 34 $\frac{1}{2}$, Bury 15 $\frac{1}{2}$, Chester 46 $\frac{1}{2}$ north-east, Crewe 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ north-east, Derby 63 $\frac{1}{2}$, Gainsborough 74 $\frac{1}{2}$, Huddersfield 26 $\frac{1}{2}$, Lancaster 57, Leeds 43 $\frac{1}{2}$, Liverpool 37 east, Leicester 85 $\frac{1}{2}$, Lincoln 84 $\frac{1}{2}$, Macclesfield 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ north, Preston 37 $\frac{1}{2}$, Rochdale 14 $\frac{1}{2}$, St. Helens 25, Sandbach 21 $\frac{1}{2}$ north-east, Sheffield 41 $\frac{1}{2}$, Stafford 48 $\frac{1}{2}$, Stalybridge 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ south-west, Southport 43 $\frac{1}{2}$, Warrington 23 $\frac{1}{2}$ east, Walsall 79 $\frac{1}{2}$, Wolverhampton 63 $\frac{1}{2}$. It is in the Altrincham division of the county, Macclesfield hundred, rural deanery of Stockport, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester.

The municipal and parliamentary limits are co-extensive, and comprise Edgeley and Portwood in Brinnington township, part of Cheadle Bulkeley township, part of Cheadle Moseley township, Stockport township and part of Heaton Norris township in Lancashire. Since the "Reform Act, 1832" (2 and 3 William IV. c. 45), the borough has sent two members to parliament.

Under the "Local Government Act, 1888" (51 & 52 Victoria, c. 41), Stockport has been declared, for certain purposes, a county borough.

The corporation consists of a mayor, 14 aldermen and 42 councillors, and under the "Municipal Corporations Act, 1835" (5 and 6 William IV. c. 76), the borough was originally divided into six wards, but on June 23, 1894, it was re-arranged into fourteen wards, and has a commission of the peace.

The gas works, in Wellington road north, Heaton Norris, are the property of the corporation, but water is supplied by a company.

The town stands on the river Mersey, here formed by the junction of the rivers Goyte and Tame, and is most irregularly built, being in some parts precipitous, with an ascent from the north; and around this acclivity on the south bank of the river the houses rise in successive tiers from the base to the summit. Stockport has communication with all parts by the London and North Western and North Staffordshire railways, with stations at Edgeley and Heaton Norris, and by the Cheshire Lines Committees railways, which have a joint station at Tiviot Dale on the Lancashire side; another line, forming a junction with the preceding railway at Brinnington, passes through Reddish Vale and Gorton and joins the main line of the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire railway at Ashbury junction; and a branch line, about a mile in length, joining the Cheshire Lines Committees system at Bredbury, affords direct communication from Stockport to London and the South of England.

The magnificent viaduct of the London and North Western railway, which literally passes over the town, has an extreme length of 1,780 feet, comprising 22 semi-circular arches, each 63 feet span, carrying four lines of rails, at a height from the bed of the river of 108 feet, and was erected at a cost of about £75,000. Tramways are also laid from the town to Manchester.

The river is crossed by a fine bridge of eleven arches, which also carries the Wellington road across the valley; nine of the arches being on the Cheshire and two on the Lancashire side; it was opened to the public, with the road, in 1826; the whole being completed at an expense of £40,000.

St. Peter's Bridge, over Little Underbank, built in 1868 at a cost of £8,000, and connecting St. Petersgate with the Market place, is an iron structure 210 feet in length.

The church of St. Mary the Virgin, formerly All Saints (the mother church), an edifice of stone in the Early English style, was rebuilt (with the exception of the chancel) in 1810, and consists of chancel, clerestoried nave of five bays, aisles, north and south porches, and a lofty embattled western tower with four pinnacles, containing a clock and 8 bells: the stained east window is a good example of the Decorated work of the 14th century: the chancel, dating from about 1290, is singularly beautiful in design and retains sedilia and a piscina: the west window is also stained and there are several others: the church was restored in 1882 at a cost of £4,500, and the chancel in 1891 at a cost of £1,000, both under the direction of Mr. J. S. Crowther, architect: there are about 1,200 sittings. The register, which has been well preserved, dates from the year 1584. The living is a rectory, average tithe rent charge £717, gross yearly value £2,397, net £1,690, with residence, in the gift of and held since 1875 by the Rev. William Symonds M.A. of Caius College, Cambridge, honorary canon of Chester, rural dean of Stockport, and surrogate. In connection with this church are three mission churches, also used as schools.

St. Peter's is an ecclesiastical parish, formed April 2, 1839, from that of St. Mary: the church, in St. Peter's square, erected in 1768, at the sole expense of William Wright esq. who endowed it with £120 yearly, is an edifice of brick in the Italian style, consisting of chancel, nave, west porch and a western tower containing a clock and one bell: a new chancel was erected in 1888 at a cost of £1,500, and has stained windows; the altar-piece, a fine work, representing "the Agony in the Garden," was painted and presented by Mr. J. H. Partington, late of Stockport, in 1890: the church affords 620 sittings. The register dates from the year 1840. The living is a vicarage, gross yearly value £281, with residence, in the gift of Mrs. Wright, of Mottram Hall, and held since 1889 by the Rev. Eugene Ebenezer Temple Candler M.A. of Oxford University.

St. Thomas's is an ecclesiastical parish, formed April 2, 1839, and embracing the whole of the township of Stockport south of Greek street and the entire township of Bramhall: the church, on the east side of the Wellington road south, erected in 1825, at a cost of £16,000, is of stone, in the Classic style, and consists of chancel, nave of five bays, aisles, north and south porches and an eastern tower, surmounted by a cupola and containing one bell: the chancel was built in 1890 at a cost of £1,200, and in 1890 the organ was repaired and enlarged at a cost of £400: the church has galleries on three sides and affords 2,000 sittings. The register dates from the year 1825. The living was declared a rectory in 1875, average tithe rent-charge £398, estimated gross yearly value £869, net £123, in the gift of the Rev. W. Symonds, and held since 1886 by the Rev. Arthur Symonds M.A. of Brasenose College, Oxford, and surrogate. There are three Mission churches and a Mission room in connection with this church.

St. Matthew's, Edgeley, is an ecclesiastical parish, formed June 3, 1844, from the parishes of Stockport and Cheadle: the church, in Grenville street, erected at a cost of £10,000 and consecrated in 1858, is a building of stone in the Early English style, from designs by Mr. J. G. Crowther, architect, and consists of chancel, clerestoried nave of four bays, aisles, south porch and a western tower, with spire, containing one bell: the stained east window was added in 1878: there are 654 sittings. The register dates from the year 1858. The living is a vicarage, gross yearly value £400, net £360, in the gift of the Crown and the Bishop of Chester alternately, and held since 1893 by the Rev. Henry Willcocks Baptist Crozier M.A. of Trinity College, Dublin.

BRINKSWAY - CUM - CHEADLE HEATH is a parish formed out of the parishes of St. Matthew and St. Mary the Virgin, Cheadle. The church of St. Augustine, built in 1893, is a structure of red brick, in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, north porch and a turret containing one bell: there are 530 sittings. The living is a vicarage, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, net yearly value £150, with residence, and held since 1896 by the Rev. Arthur Joseph Jameson M.A. of Clare College, Cambridge.

PORTWOOD is an ecclesiastical parish, formed June 3, 1844, from that of St. Mary: the church of St. Paul, in Great Portwood street, erected in 1850, is a building of stone in the Early English style, from designs by Mr. J. G. Crowther, and consists of chancel, nave of five bays, aisles, south porch and a western tower, with lofty spire, containing one bell: the church affords sittings, including galleries, for 650 persons. The register dates from the year 1851. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £310, in the gift of the Crown and Bishop of Chester alternately, and held since 1862 by the Rev. Jeremiah Coombes, who is a surrogate.

For Christ Church, see Heaton Norris, page 484.

The Catholic church, in Chapel street, Edgeley, built in 1801, and dedicated to SS. Philip and James, is an edifice of red brick with stone porch surmounted by a cupola, and will seat 800 persons.

The Catholic church, in St. Petersgate, dedicated to St. Joseph, and erected in 1862, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, and will seat 700.

The Congregational church, in the Wellington road south, erected in 1866 at a cost of £6,000, is a building in the Early Decorated style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, transepts and a tower with spire 126 feet in height: there are about 700 sittings.

Trinity Wesleyan chapel, in Wellington road south, erected in 1885, at a cost of £10,000, is of stone, and will seat 1,100.

The Wesleyan chapel, in Castle street, Edgeley, erected in 1873, at a cost of £3,300, from plans by Mr. W. Hill, architect, of Leeds, is of brick and stone, and will seat, including galleries, 700 persons.

Mount Tabor Methodist New Connexion chapel, in Wellington road south, erected in 1879, at a cost of £8,000, is of brick with a stone front in the Classic style, and affords 900 sittings.

The Unitarian chapel, in St. Petersgate, erected in 1849, at a cost of £3,000, and enlarged in 1886, at a cost of £2,000, is of stone in the Gothic style, and will seat 400.

There are also Baptists and Primitive Methodist chapels, and a meeting house for the Society of Friends.

The cemetery at Heaviley, formed in 1838, at a cost of about £10,000, covers an area of about twenty acres and has three mortuary chapels; it is controlled by the Stockport Borough Cemetery Co. Limited.

The Court House, in Warren street, originally a warehouse, is used as a town hall, and comprises two large court rooms, retiring room, mayor's parlour, borough treasurer and clerks' offices and police office and cells. The meetings of the corporation, magistrates' sittings and petty sessions are held here.

The municipal insignia comprise a mayor's chain and badge and a corporate seal. The chain, obtained by subscription in 1871, is of gold, and consists of links bearing crowned shields alternating with figures of maces and fasces; in the centre is a shield of arms with supporters, intended to represent the arms of Lord Vernon, whose family held the manor until its purchase by the Corporation; the designer, however, has fallen into a serious error, for the shield, instead of the Vernon coat, bears that of the Warrens, from whom the manor descended to the Vernon family. The badge, which hangs below this, is also of gold, and was presented by John Mathew esq. mayor, 1870-1; it displays the borough arms (az. semée of cross-crosslets fitchée, 3 lozenges or, 2 and 1), and around are various national and civic emblems. The seal is circular, 2½ inches in diameter, with the same arms, and a lion and a figure of Britannia as supporters, and a marginal legend.

The Volunteer Armoury and Drill Ground, belonging to the 4th Volunteer Battalion of the Cheshire Regiment, are at the corner of Greek street and Shaw heath; the former, erected in 1862, at a cost of £4,000, contains a reading room for the officers, club room for the non-commissioned officers and privates, band room, sergeant-major's and adjutant's offices, a spacious room for storing arms, and an excellent drill shed 180 feet long and 60 wide.

The Public Baths, in St. Petersgate, erected in 1888 at a cost of £8,000, are of brick and terra-cotta in the Italian style, from designs by Mr. Prestwich, architect, of Leith; they contain three swimming baths, one 90 feet by 30 feet, one 42 feet by 18 feet, and one 51 feet by 33 feet, one of these being for females; there are also 33 first and second class private baths, three vapour baths and a Turkish bath; the management is controlled by the corporation.

The Mechanics' Institution, in Wellington road south and St. Petersgate, built in 1862, at a cost of £6,500, is of brick with stone dressings in the Italian style, from designs by Mr. James Stephens, architect, of Macclesfield, and consists of library, reading rooms and a number of class rooms, in which evening classes are held during the winter months; the library now (1896) contains 6,500 volumes.

The Savings Bank, established in 1824, is held in the Hillgate and is managed by a committee, and the deposits, amounting to over £370,000, are under the direction and control of the Government.

In St. Peter's square is a bronze statue of Richard Cobden, M.P. for Stockport, 1841-7; the figure, modelled by Mr. G. C. Adams, sculptor, of London, stands on a pedestal of Aberdeen granite, and was unveiled on Saturday, 27 Nov. 1883, by Miss Cobden, daughter of the statesman.

The Reform Club, Cobden place and Higher Hillgate, erected in 1889, from designs by Messrs. Beaumont, of Manchester, at a cost of £10,000, is an edifice of red brick, the lower portion of which is let for shops.

Here are foundries, machine works, breweries and flour mills, but the staple trade of the town is the spinning and manufacture of cotton and the making of hats.

The market day is on Friday, chiefly for agricultural produce, but a more considerable trade is done on Saturday. The fairs are held on January 1, on the first Friday in February, March 4 and 25, May 1, the first Friday in June, August, September and December and on July 9 and October 23; weekly markets are held in the Castle yard, except when the Friday is a cattle day.

The Market, built in 1861, at a cost of £8,000, is of iron with a glass roof.

A Market House of stone and brick was erected in the Market in 1851, but it is little used; the upper part of the building is now occupied by the Public Free Library, established in the year 1875, under the Free Libraries Act; the reference library contains 9,750 volumes, and the lending library 14,942 volumes.

The Infirmary, in Wellington road south, erected in 1832, at a cost of nearly £6,000, is a structure of brick, fronted with freestone, and is available for 60 in-patients; during 1895 upwards of 5,200 patients were under treatment, of which 754 were in-patients.

The Infectious Diseases Hospital, built by the Corporation, is about 1½ miles from the Infirmary.

The Institution for the Blind, the Deaf and the Dumb, in St. Petersgate, is a building in the Italian style, erected in 1873; there are no inmates, the institution being used only for industrial purposes: there is a library and a piano for the use of blind persons employed here, of whom there are now (1896) 24, including 14 females; Thomas Allott, manager.

Warren's Almshouses, Turncroft lane, are for three poor men, each of whom receives a weekly allowance of 6s. together with coals and rates free. In 1886 four new almshouses were built.

Viscountess Bulkeley left the interest of £2,271 for the inmates of Warren's almshouses and for the poor, and Humphrey Warren also left £100 now in the 2½ per cents. Thorniley's charity of £6 10s. yearly is for bread.

Vernon Park, laid out in the year 1848, has an extent of 21a. 1r. 38p. with entrances from Newbridge lane and Turncroft lane; the grounds are tastefully laid out, and from the elevated portions some beautiful views of the surrounding district may be obtained; within the park and near to the entrance from Turncroft lane is a Free Museum.

Edgeley Park, presented to the town about 1887 by Messrs. T. H. and A. H. Sykes, and laid out at a cost of about £1,500, is an acre and a quarter in extent, and has an approach from Park road; connected with the park are two reservoirs, on which boating can be had.

The area of the township is 1,302 acres of land and 22 of water; rateable value of the borough, £275,642; the population of the township in 1891 was 37,297, which includes 530 officers and inmates in the Workhouse, 74 in the Infirmary, 93 in Bishop Brown Memorial Industrial School, 166 in Stockport Industrial School for Boys and 70 in Stockport Industrial School for Girls; the limits of the municipal and parliamentary borough are co-extensive; the population in 1881 was 59,553, and in 1891 was—

HEATON NORRIS is a township in Lancashire, forming a suburb of Stockport (Cheshire), from which it is separated by the river Mersey and has stations on the London and North Western and Cheshire Lines railways, 5½ miles south from Manchester, in the Stretford division of Lancashire, hundred of Salford, union and county court district of Stockport, rural deanery of Ardwick, archdeaconry and diocese of Manchester: the Mersey is here crossed by a fine bridge of eleven arches, opened in 1826, and by the viaduct of the London and North Western railway: the Ashton, Manchester and Oldham canal terminates here at Lancashire Hill. This suburb is paved, lighted with gas and supplied with water, and is intimately connected with Stockport in its trading relations, part being incorporated with that borough, but the remainder was separately governed by a Local Board from April 23, 1872, but under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1895" (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73), an Urban District Council has been established. Christ Church is an ecclesiastical parish formed by Bishop's instrument, September 14, 1838, and reformed as a new district June 16, 1854, from the civil parish of Manchester; the church, on the east side of Wellington road north, and erected in 1846 at a cost of £6,000, is a building of stone in the Early Pointed style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, north, south and west porches, and a western tower with spire 200 feet in height and containing one bell and an illuminated clock with three dials; the brass lectern is a memorial to the Rev.

Charles Babington Jeaffreson M.A. late rector, d. 4 Sept. 1877: the stained east window is a memorial to Frances Louisa, daughter of the late Alderman William Williamson (1859); and there are various others; the chancel was added in 1882 at a cost of £2,454; the church has galleries on three sides and affords 1,230 sittings, 700 of which are free. The register of baptisms and burials dates from 1846 and of marriages from 1847. The living is a rectory, gross yearly value £317, net £300, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Manchester, and held since 1892 by the Rev. George Caruthers Little M.A. of Balliol College, Oxford, and surrogate. All Saints' church, Manchester road, erected in 1888, is an edifice of brick in the Gothic style, and affords about 400 sittings. The register dates from the year 1888. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £270, in the gift of the Bishop of Manchester, and held since 1891 by the Rev. Richard Masheder M.A. of Keble College, Oxford.

The Hope Memorial Schools and Mission church, in connection with Christ Church, were built in 1884 from plans by Messrs. Preston and Vaughan, architects, of Manchester, and will seat 200 persons for mission purposes, and hold 300 children. St. Luke's Mission Room, Bridgefield, also in connection with Christ Church, was opened June 7, 1891, and will seat 200 persons. The Catholic chapel in Roman road, opened in 1867 and dedicated to St. Mary the Virgin, is a small edifice of brick, and has about 300 sittings. For other places of worship, see p. 486. Sir Ralph Pendlebury's charity for orphans was founded by deed, dated November 1st, 1880, by William Rayner esq. M.D. (chairman), John Stock esq. Edward Carrington Howard esq. and Edward Walmsley esq. and is endowed with the sum of £100,000; the object of the charity is to administer out relief wherever possible, which is partly afforded in clothing and in the maintenance, education, placing out in life or otherwise assisting indigent orphans, who, or whose parents have been resident for not less than two years in the borough, parishes or townships of Stockport, Heaton Norris, Reddish, Brinnington, Bredbury, Romiley, Offerton, Bosden, Torkington, Norbury, Bramhall, Cheadle, Cheadle Hulme, Cheadle Moseley, Cheadle Bulkeley, Stockport Etchells or Burnage, all in the counties of Chester or Lancaster: the charity is quite undenominational in its character, and there are at present (1896) about 250 orphans of both sexes on the books; the management of the charity is vested in a board of governors composed of the founders and their survivors, the mayor of Stockport for the time being (ex-officio) and there are other elected members, numbering in all fifteen. The Sir Ralph Pendlebury Memorial Hall, on Lancashire hill, opened in April, 1882, by the late Lord Vernon, is a structure of red brick in the Elizabethan style, from plans by Messrs Beaumont, of Manchester. In the township are extensive factories for the making of cotton and thread, and hats are also manufactured. There are rope walks, iron foundries, machine works and saw mills, furnishing employment to a great part of the population. Lord Egerton of Tatton and Robert Bamford-Hesketh esq. of Gwyrch Castle, Abergyle, are the principal landowners. The area is 2,094 acres of land and 22 of water; rateable value in the portion within Stockport, £60,435. The population in 1871 was 16,481; in 1881, 20,347; and in 1891 was 23,522, of which 16,358 were within the borough of Stockport, the remainder 7,164 constitutes the population of the urban district.

Parish Clerk, Charles Penney.

The Hope Memorial Schools (infants' department) in connexion with Christ Church schools, occupies a building on Huntsman's Brow, erected & enlarged since 1883, at a cost of £1,700; Mrs. A. E. M. Cooper, mistress

HEATON CHAPEL is about a mile north from Christ Church, with a station on the London and North Western railway, and was formed into an ecclesiastical parish May 29, 1839, from the civil parish of Manchester. The church of St. Thomas, erected in 1765, is a plain structure of brick and plaster, partly in the Gothic style of the 14th century, and consists of chancel, nave, transepts, aisles, north porch and a wooden turret at the west end containing one bell: the east window and some others are stained: the remaining windows contain a complete collection of the arms of all the English and Welsh sees: at the west end is a brass tablet erected to commemorate the seven years' wardenship (1874-81) of J. T. Hope and T. Beaumont, by whose efforts the church was extensively repaired during that period, at a cost of over £2,000. On the south side is a marble monument, erected in 1850 to William Travis, for more than 40 years master of Heaton Norris school, who died 6th Nov. 1843; and on the north side another to the Rev. Dudley Jackson B.C.L. 36 years rector of the parish d. 27 Dec. 1879: the church affords 906 sittings, of which 250 are free. The register of baptisms dates from 1765, of marriages from 1838, and of burials from 1767; these are in fair condition. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £481, with residence, in the gift of the Dean and Chapter of Manchester, and held since 1888 by the Rev. John Henn B.A. of the University of London and surrogate. A lending and reference library of 800 volumes, formerly attached to the church, was transferred in 1875 to the Sunday school and is open on Sundays only from 3 to 4 p.m. The area is 729 acres; the population in 1871 was 1,742; in 1881, 3,060 and in 1891, 2,269.

St. Thomas' National School (mixed), built in 1867 & rebuilt in 1891 for 480 children; average attendance, 227; Albert Hindley, master
Railway Station, Joseph Swindlehurst, station master

HEATON MOOR was formed into an ecclesiastical parish May 7, 1878, from the parishes of Heaton Norris and St. John, Heaton Mersey. The church of St. Paul, the foundation stone of which was laid 3 April, 1875, was opened 29 Sept. 1876, and consecrated by the late Bishop of Manchester, 25 Jan. 1877: it is a building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave of four bays with clerestory, aisles, south-west porch, and a tower at the south-east angle containing one bell; it was enlarged in 1894 by the addition of two bays: there are now 830 sittings, one-third being free. The register dates from the year 1877. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £367, in the gift of trustees, and held since 1889 by the Rev. William Hanbury Smartt B.D. of Trinity College, Dublin. The Wesleyan chapel, Heaton Moor road, erected in 1873, is a structure of white brick with Bath stone dressings in the Gothic style, with a lofty tower and spire on the south-west and will seat 600 persons. The Congregational chapel, Heaton Moor road, now (1896) being erected, is a stone building of Gothic design: the east window is stained and there are sittings for 500. The population of the ecclesiastical parish in 1891 was 2,175.

STOCKPORT ETCHELLS is a township and small village, three-quarters of a mile from Cheadle stations on the London and North Western and Cheshire Lines Committees railways, and $4\frac{1}{2}$ west-south-west from Stockport, in the Altrincham division of the county, union, county court district and petty sessional division of Stockport. Gatley, the most populous portion, is the name given to an ecclesiastical parish formed 30th June, 1882, from St. Thomas's, Stockport, and consists of the whole of the township of Stockport Etchells, in the rural deanery of Stockport, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The church of St. James the Apostle, erected in 1881, is an edifice of red brick, consisting of chancel, nave and south-west saddle-back tower containing one tubular bell; the base of the tower forms a porch: there are several stained windows and 250 sittings. The register dates from the year 1877. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £160, in the gift of the rector of St. Thomas's, Stockport, and held since 1888 by the Rev. John Bruster, of the University of Durham. There are Congregational chapels at Gatley and Long Lane, and a Primitive Methodist chapel at Gatley. The Manchester Royal Lunatic Hospital, situated here, was erected in 1848 at a cost of £25,000, and enlarged in 1885, when a ball room, officers' quarters and store rooms were added; it stands on an estate of 64 acres, lying contiguous to the road from Wilmslow to Manchester, and about 100 feet above the Manchester level: the building, which consists of a central block with wings, has a south-east aspect: there is a small chapel within the grounds seating 190, and six villas for the reception of 50 patients: the country around is flat, but pretty well wooded, and very extensive and fine views are obtained from some of the windows, especially of the Derbyshire hills and in the direction of Woodhead: George William Mould M.R.C.S. Eng. medical superintendent. Thomas Egerton Tatton esq. J.P. of Wythenshawe Hall, who is lord of the manor, and Robert Bamford-Hesketh, of Gwyrch Castle, Abergelle, are the chief landowners. The soil is sand and gravel; subsoil, clay. The chief crops are wheat, oats, potatoes and turnips. The area is 1,572 acres; rateable value, £11,547; the population in 1871 was 977, in 1881, 1,369, and in 1891, 1,444, including 314 officers and inmates in the Lunatic Hospital.

Outwood is the name given to a few houses standing on the site of a former wood.

BREDBURY is a township and extensive parish formed September 8, 1846, from the parish of Stockport, 2½ miles north-east from Stockport, with a station on the Manchester and Marple section of the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire railway and 1½ miles south-west from Romiley station on the same line, in the Hyde division of the county, hundred of Macclesfield, Stockport union and county court district, petty sessional division of Stockport, rural deanery of Stockport, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester.

The "Local Government Act, 1858," was adopted here 6 January, 1865, and the district has since been extended under the Act 43 and 44 Vict. c. 58 (1880), so as to include Romiley. The former Local Board, under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894" (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73), has been superseded by an Urban District Council.
